

4-12-1993

Vol. 4, No. 12 (April 12, 1993)

Follow this and additional works at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ila>

Recommended Citation

"Vol. 4, No. 12 (April 12, 1993)" (1993). Indiana Law Annotated. Paper 468.
<http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ila/468>

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Publications at Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Indiana Law Annotated by an authorized administrator of Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. For more information, please contact wattn@indiana.edu.

INDIANA LAW ANNOTATED

Vol.4, No.12

April 12, 1993

JUDGE ESCHBACH SPEAKS TODAY AT NOON, MOOT COURT ROOM

On Monday, April 12, Judge Jesse E. Eschbach will speak on "The Role of the Federal Courts." The talk is open to everyone, and will be at noon in the Moot Court Room. Judge Eschbach has served on the federal bench for thirty years. He was appointed to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Indiana by President Kennedy. After serving as Chief Judge of that court, he was appointed to the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit by President Reagan.

SIR DAVID WILLIAMS DELIVERS FIRST FUCHS LECTURE THURSDAY AT 3:30

On Thursday, April 15, Sir David G.T. Williams will deliver the first Ralph Fuchs Memorial on "Law and Administrative Discretion." The talk will be at 3:30 in the Moot Court Room, and is open to everyone. Sir David Williams is the Vice Chancellor of Cambridge University. He is a distinguished teacher, scholar and administrator. It is fitting that he be the inaugural speaker for the Indiana University School of Law's Ralph F. Fuchs Lecture Program because, like Professor Fuchs, his contributions to public service have been significant, extensive and humane. Sir David Williams received his B.A. from Cambridge University in 1953, an LL.B. in 1954, and an M.A. in 1958. He then came to the United States where he studied at Harvard and the University of California. He received an LL.M. from California in 1958.

He began his teaching career in 1958 at the University of Nottingham Department of Law. From 1963 to 1967, he taught at Keble College at the University of Oxford. In 1967 he joined the faculty at Emmanuel College, Cambridge where he served as Director of Studies in Law. From 1980 to 1992 he was the President of Wolfson College at Cambridge and in 1983 he was named the Rouse Ball Professor of English Law, a position he held until 1992, when he became the first full-time Vice Chancellor at Cambridge University, the position he now holds.

He was appointed to the Royal Commission of Environmental Pollution in 1976, and reappointed twice again. As a result of his experiences on that commission he was instrumental in the publication of four reports: Agriculture and Pollution; Oil Pollution of the Sea; Lead in the Environment; and Tackling Pollution - Experience and Prospects.

He was chairman of the Working Party of the Clean Air Council from 1971 to 1979, a member of the Commission on Energy and the Environment from 1978 to 1981, and Chairman of the Home Secretary's Advisory Committee on Animal Experiments from 1986 to 1987. He is well known for his scholarship in public and environmental law, and English constitutional and administrative law. His book, Not in the Public Interest: The Problem of Secrecy in Democracy, is a classic text in English public law.

CONFERENCE ON EMERGING PARADIGMS IN BIOETHICS NEXT WEEK

On April 23, the Conference on Emerging Paradigms in Bioethics will be jointly sponsored by the Law School and the Poynter Center for the Study of Ethics and American Institutions. The Conference is designed to test the continuing utility of autonomy-based approaches to medical decisionmaking. It brings together law professors, philosophers, and faculty in public health to debate other approaches to medical decision making. Each will present an original paper, to be published in the Indiana Law Journal. Commentators from departments throughout the university, including Fred Cate and Susan Williams from the Law School, will discuss the papers during the Conference. Participants include Tom L. Beauchamp of the Kennedy Institute of Ethics at Georgetown, Professor John Arras from the Albert Einstein Medical Center, Professor John Roberts from the University of Texas Law School, Professor Carl Schneider from the University of Michigan Law School. The Conference was organized by Roger Dworkin from the Law School, and is open to the public. It will be in the Moot Court Room at the Law School.

COMMUNITY LEGAL CLINIC OPEN HOUSE THURSDAY

The Community Legal Clinic will be holding an Open House on Thursday, April 15th, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. This is an opportunity for you to speak with the current legal interns and supervising attorneys about the experiences you can expect to encounter working with clients and the legal system in Monroe County. If that doesn't sound interesting to you. . . rumor has it there will be copious amounts of hors d'oeuvres to be sampled.

NEWS FROM THE FACULTY

April 12-15 Steve Conrad will attend a gala celebration at the University of Virginia, to commemorate the 250th anniversary of Jefferson's birth. Mikhail Gorbachev will give the keynote address; William Jefferson Clinton may also attend; and there will be a ceremony to mark the publication of the first copy of the volume JEFFERSONIAN LEGACIES, to which Conrad has contributed an essay on "Jefferson and rights." Aviva Orenstein will present a lecture entitled "Evidentiary Issues Raised by Toxic Tort Litigation" at a Toxic Tort conference sponsored by Franklin Pierce Law Center in Concord, New Hampshire.

NEWS FROM STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Protective Order Project Seeks Summer Volunteers; Article about Project in State Bar Newsletter

The Protective Order Project is law students and lawyers working together to obtain civil relief for battered women. Students get lots of good experience in legal drafting, interviewing clients, and evaluating evidence under the guidance of experienced attorneys. If you will be around this summer, and think you might be interested in volunteering, please put a note in Dawnya Taylor's box on the ground floor, or Dean Robel's mailbox on the second floor. An article about the Protective Order Project recently appeared in the Indiana State Bar Association Young Lawyers Section newsletter, YLS-Network.

Jewish Law Students Association Meeting Wednesday

Elections will be held for next year's officers at the meeting on Wednesday, April 14, at noon in Room 214. If you are unable to attend the meeting, please see Beth Freeman about voting absentee.

Film for Holocaust Remembrance Day (April 16)

JLSA will present the film Voices from the Attic for Yom HaShoah (Holocaust Remembrance Day) on Friday, April 16, at noon in Room 121. Voices from the Attic is a 1988 film (1 hour in length) which documents the return to Poland of a Jewish survivor of the Holocaust and her family to the place where she and her relatives had hidden from the German soldiers during World War II. The film explores the Holocaust's impact on two generations within a Jewish family. The film will start promptly at noon so as not to interfere with the class that starts in 121 at 1 p.m. Hope to see all of you there!

Thanks from JLSA

Thanks to all of the faculty, staff, and students who have helped to support JLSA since its inception two years ago. Special thanks to Professor Orenstein for her unique contributions! Best of luck to the Class of 1993!!

Rutherford Institute Sponsors Talk Tuesday

The Rutherford Institute of Indiana University has invited Dr. Judith A. Reisman to the law school to speak on "Kinsey, Sex and Fraud" on Tuesday, April 13, 1993 at 7:00 p.m. in Room 121. Her research on the Kinsey Institute (located here on the I.U. campus) questions the foundations of the Kinsey Reports. She claims that Kinsey's team used and sexually abused infants and young children for their child sexuality "research." She also claims that the Kinsey team also used a large percentage of imprisoned sex offenders in their search for "normal" sexual activity among the American population. Dr. Reisman's research -- "Images of Children, Crime and Violence in Playboy, Penthouse, and Hustler" -- conducted for the Department of Justice, was used as background and evidence in the 1990 child sex abuse conviction of Hustler cartoonist Dwaine Tinsley. Dr. Reisman's research has also been presented to the U.S. Congress and to the U.S. Supreme Court in cases dealing with child pornography. Please plan to attend this most educational speech on the Kinsey Institute and pornography. Dr. Reisman will be available to answer questions after the presentation.

SLA ELECTIONS TODAY AND TOMORROW

The election of SLA representatives for next year's second and third year classes will take place TODAY from 12:00 Noon to 3:00 PM, and TOMORROW from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM. All current first and second year students are eligible, so don't forget to VOTE!!!

TV, OR NOT TV, THAT IS THE QUESTION.....

SLA will conduct a non-binding referendum on whether student funds should be used for the purchase of a television in the ground-floor student lounge. The SLA Bookstore has generated sufficient revenue to make such a purchase possible, but whether this nobler to watch CNN on a study break or to preserve the present atmosphere of the lounge depends on who you ask. So we're asking you.

As part of the SLA Elections, SLA representatives will also conduct a poll of the entire student body (including 3L's) on the appropriateness of purchasing a television, which would always be tuned to CNN Headline News. (Students would not be able to change channels.) Alternative suggestions for the use of these resources are also welcome.

Student Groups Sponsor Discussion on Gays in Military Friday

On Friday, April 16th, Curt Smith, State Director for Senator Dan Coats, will discuss the issue of gays in the military at 12:00 noon in the Moot Court Room. Before accepting the position of State Director, Curt served as Senator Coats' press secretary in both the House and Senate and managed Coats successful re-election campaign to the House of Representatives in 1988. He is undeniably one of Senator Coats' most trusted aides.

The discussion is being sponsored by the Federalist Society, The Rutherford Institute and the Christian Legal Society. All students, faculty and interested persons are invited to attend. For more information, contact Phil Troyer (2L)

Women's Law Caucus Elections Wednesday

Women's Law Caucus will have elections for co-chairs and auction co-chair Wednesday, April 14th, in room 120 at 12:15 p.m.

Sports and Entertainment Law Society News

The Sports and Entertainment Law Society wishes to congratulate Beth Renaldi (2L) on winning the NCAA-Oscar Contest benefitting Special Olympics. Enjoy the movies, Beth. New Sports & Entertainment Law Society Officers are Ozie Davis and Donald Woodard, Co-

Presidents, David Mammel, External Vice President, Bob Winteringham, Internal Vice President, Tracie Woods, Treasurer, Michelle Steele, Secretary.

The next meeting of the Sports & Entertainment Law Society will be Thursday, April 15 at 12:00 noon in room 122. The meeting will feature entertainment lawyer Max Siegal, speaking on various aspects of entertainment law.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FELLOWSHIP APPLICATIONS

Fellowship applications are due on April 16. Forms are available in Dean Fromm's office. Glenn Peters Fellowship applications are also available in that office. Recipients need to be residents of the Northern District of Indiana. Due date is May 15.

St. Joseph County Bar Association - John Montgomery Scholarships - are available and are due on May 1.

Applications are also available for the Western Michigan Scholarship awards. Applicants must be residents of the Western Federal District of Michigan. Due date is June 30.

LOAN APPLICATIONS

It now is looking like Law Loans and Law Access Loan applications for 1993-94 will be available at the end of this month. You will be notified when they arrive.

PEER ADVISER CALL FOR NEXT YEAR

Current 1 and 2Ls who are interested in becoming Peer Advisers for this coming academic year are invited to sign up with Dale in Dean Fromm's office. You must be willing to arrive early, i.e. on Sunday before school begins, for information and training sessions. You may also sign up for summer advising.

SENIORS

Go to the IU Bookstore before April 16 to order your Caps, Gowns, and Hoods for graduation festivities if you want the lower rental price.

INDIANAPOLIS BAR ASSOCIATION "TAKE A LAW STUDENT TO LUNCH PROGRAM"

The Indianapolis Bar Association's Law School Liaison Committee is pleased to announce that its popular Take A Law Student To Lunch program will be held again this year on Wednesday April 21. Interested students should call Pam at 317-269-1902.

Children and Law Discussion Group Meets April 19

The Children and the Law Discussion Group will meet again Monday, April 19 at noon in Rm. 214. The topic will be children in the Courtroom: Legal Rules and Real Life Experiences. The program will be given by law student Cynthia Marker and Karen Teaters, a social worker experienced in testifying in court in cases dealing with children. Everyone is welcome. Bring your lunch and join us. Drinks and dessert will again be provided.

EVENTS, LECTURES

Professor Lamber to Speak Tuesday at Noon: "Thinking About Difference: Lessons From A Litigation Strategy"

Professor Julia Lamber will speak on Tuesday, April 13, at noon in Rn. 214. Her topic is "Thinking about Difference: Lessons from a Litigation Strategy." Students are invited to attend.

Professor Baude to Speak at Noon Tuesday in Ethics Series

The Center for the Study of Law and Society Ethics Series continues on April 13, with Professor Patrick Baude's talk on "The Social Construction of Lawyers' Character." The talk will be in the Faculty Lounge. Students are invited to attend.

"Ethical Issues in Insurance Defense" Wednesday, Noon

Stephen Peters, Esq., J.D. IU--Bloomington 1980, partner Stewart & Irwin will address a joint session of Professors Orenstein and Greenebaum's section of Legal Profession. He will speak on "Ethical Issues in Insurance Defense" on Wednesday April 14 at noon in the Moot Court room. The entire law school community is welcome.

Lecture on Trends in International Medical Legislation and Organ Transplant Law Wednesday

Professor Bernard Dickens, Professor on the Faculty of Law and Center for Bioethics at the University of Toronto, will speak on Wednesday, April 14th at noon in the faculty lounge. Professor Dickens has written extensively on organ transplants and is active in international medical legislation. All students and faculty are welcome to attend this lecture, sponsored by the Indiana Journal of Global Legal Studies.

Max Siegel to Speak on Thursday on Entertainment Law

Max Siegel, Sports and Entertainment Lawyer from the Indianapolis law firm of Baker & Daniels will speak on the effects of being a Sports and Entertainment Lawyer within a private firm. Mr. Siegel represents, among others, players on the San Diego Padres baseball team and Gospel singers in the entertainment industry. Max Siegel is a 1992 graduate of the School of Law at Notre Dame. All interested students are invited to meet at noon with the Sports and Entertainment Law Society in room 122

Women's Studies Presents Lecture on Women in the Arab World April 14

Women's Studies Program, Indiana University, Ramsay Lecture Series presents Nawal El Saadawi, Novelist, Psychiatrist, and Feminist Activist. Author of the Hidden Face of Eve: Women in the Arab World, Memoirs of a Woman Doctor, Woman at Point Zero; Searching, God Dies by the Nile, and the Circling Song. "Women, Creativity, and Power" April 14, 1993, Law School 123, 4:00 p.m. Funding provided by Janice Ramsay, Near Eastern Languages and Cultures, Middle Eastern Studies, and the Indiana Center for Global Change and World Peace. The Public is Cordially Invited to Attend. Reception to Follow in Law School Faculty Lounge.

Women's Studies Presents Talk on Black Feminist Thought April 23

Women's Studies Program, Indiana University, The Second Annual IDA B. Wells Lecture "Knowledge and Power: The Challenge of Black Feminist Thought" Patricia Hill Collins, University of Cincinnati Author of Black Feminist Thought, April 23, 1993, Woodburn Hall 101, 4:00 p.m., The Public is Cordially Invited to Attend. Funding from the Women's Studies Program, Janice Ramsay, and the Ida B. Wells Lecture Fund.

CALENDAR

Monday, April 12

- ...The Honorable Jesse Eschbach, "The Role of the Federal Courts," Noon, Moot Court Room
- ...SLA Elections

Tuesday, April 13

- ...Julia Lamber, "Thinking about Difference: Lessons from a Litigation Strategy." Noon, Rm. 214
- ...Pat Baude, "The Social Construction of Lawyers' Character" Noon, Faculty Lounge.
- ...Rutherford Institute presents Dr. Judith A. Reisman, "Kinsey, Sex and Fraud" 7:00 p.m., Room 121.
- ...SLA Elections

Wednesday, April 14

- ...Stephen Peters, "Ethical Issues in Insurance Defense," noon, Moot Court Room
- ..."Bernard Dickens, "International Medical Legislation," noon faculty lounge
- ...JLSA Elections, noon, Rm. 214
- ...Women's Caucus Elections, 12:15 p.m., Rm. 120
- ...Nawal El Saadawi, "Women, Creativity, and Power" 4:00 p.m., Rm. 123

Thursday, April 15

- ...Sir David G.T. Williams, "Law and Administrative Discretion," 3:30, Moot Court Room
- ...Community Legal Clinic Open House, 3-5
- ...Max Siegel, Entertainment Law, noon, Rm. 122

Friday, April 16

- ...JLSA presents Voices from the Attic, noon, Rm. 121
- ...Curt Smith, Discussion, Gays in the Military, noon, Moot Court Room
- ...Deadline, Fellowship Applications

Submissions:

ILA is published every Monday. Information and articles for ILA should be submitted by Thursday for inclusion in Monday's edition. Submissions can be given to Ms. Dodie Bowman, third floor secretarial office, put in Dean Robel's box in the faculty mailroom, second floor, or placed in the envelope on the bulletin board across from the Recorder's office. In addition, submissions can be sent through campus E-mail to LROBEL.

EVENTS, LECTURES

Professor Lamber to Speak Tuesday at Noon: "Thinking About Difference: Lessons From A Litigation Strategy"

Professor Julia Lamber will speak on Tuesday, April 13, at noon in Rm. 214. Her topic is "Thinking about Difference: Lessons from a Litigation Strategy." Students are invited to attend.

Professor Baude to Speak at Noon Tuesday in Ethics Series